EXECUTIVE BIOGRAPHIES

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

BOB NUTTING

Robert (Bob) Nutting serves as Chairman of the Board of the Pittsburgh Pirates. Bob assumed control of the club in 2007, thus becoming the sixth principal owner in the history of the Pittsburgh Pirates. He has served as Chairman of the Board and represented his family's interest in the club since 2003.

Throughout his ownership, Nutting has continued the consistent focus of improving the Pirates entire operation. He has led the effort to completely overhaul the team's facilities, leadership team and organizational approach. As a result, the Pirates organization is stronger than it has been in 20 years.

The Pirates have been the most aggressive team in Major League Baseball in investing and acquiring talent through the Amateur Draft under Nutting's leadership. In addition, the Pirates have also significantly increased their focus on infusing their system with top international talent. As a result, the Pirates Minor League system is now ranked in the top five to eight in all of baseball.

Manager Clint Hurdle was hired to inject a new attitude in the clubhouse while the hard work and player development over the first few years of his ownership has begun to make a positive impact at the Major League level.

Nutting's tenure has included the construction of the Pirates training academy in the Dominican Republic, the efforts to rebuild Pirate City, the Pirates Spring Training complex in Bradenton, Florida, and the purchase of a Florida State League franchise, the Bradenton Marauders.

Nutting has also demonstrated his commitment to ensure that Pittsburgh remains home to "The Best Ballpark in America" by enhancing and promoting the family friendly environment at PNC Park through numerous upgrades and new amenities at the ballpark.

Nutting's family roots in the greater Pittsburgh region date back as long as the Pirates 126-year history. His dedication to giving back to the community in every aspect of his life has brought a newfound philanthropic commitment to the organization.

Nutting was instrumental in the opening of another Pirates Charities Miracle League Field in 2012

Nutting has led Pirates Charities, the Club's official philanthropic arm, in making an even deeper positive impact in the community by being actively engaged in a number of community projects. This engagement has been critical in the construction of five Miracle League fields, the building of the Pirates Community Baseball Center and the continued widespread impact of the Fields for Kids program that assists in improvements to youth baseball and softball fields throughout the region. Overall, the Pirates and Pirates Charities, support more than 3,000 community organizations each year.

An avid outdoorsman and conservationist, Nutting is the driving force behind the Pirates "Let's Go Bucs. Let's Go Green." initiative to make PNC Park operations more environmentally friendly. The program has been widely recognized as one of the best in professional sports.

Nutting brings a long history of building successful organizations and a multi-generational commitment to the economic growth in the Pittsburgh region. He also serves as President and CEO of Ogden Newspapers, Inc., and Chairman of Seven Springs Mountain Resort.

The Pirates signed 32 of their 50 picks from the 2008 draft and selected 33 players from the college ranks.

Smith and his staff followed up with another strong draft in 2009, signing each of the first 14 selections and 23 overall. In 2010, the Pirates strengthened their pitching depth by selecting a pitcher in 12 of the first 14 rounds. Jameson Taillon, considered by many to be the top high school pitching prospect in the country, was selected first by Smith and his staff in the annual draft. Among the 50 total players drafted by the Pirates in 2010, 27 were signed, including 16 pitchers.

The Pirates had the first overall pick in the 2011 First-Year Player Draft and selected UCLA RHP Gerrit Cole, who was considered by many publications as one of the best collegiate pitchers available in the draft. With their second pick in the 2011 Draft, Smith and his staff selected Texas high school outfielder Josh Bell, a switch-hitter who was committed to playing at the University of Texas before signing with the Pirates. MIRACLE LEAGUE FIELDS

Pirates Charities helped celebrate opening day festivities of three new Miracle League Fields in 2012. In Pennsylvania, this included the Pirates Charities Miracle League Field of the South Hills, and the Bill Mazeroski Miracle Field, part of the Rotary Miracle Sports Complex of Murrysville. In the Pirates Spring Training home of Bradenton, FL, Pirates Charities celebrated the grand opening of the Miracle League of Manasota, presented by the Baltimore Orioles and Pittsburgh Pirates. Pirates Charities also congratulates the YMCA Miracle League of Charlotte, NC on its September 2012 grand opening, with the support of Bill and Sharon Allen of the Pirates ownership group.

FIELDS FOR KIDS

Now in its fourth year, Fields for Kids helps youth baseball and softball organizations improve their fields through matching grants of $1,000 to $5,000. A total of 103 grants have been awarded in the Pittsburgh region, including a record 31 grants in 2012. Pirates players and front office staff also visited select grantee organizations to meet with youth players and their families, and deliver grant funds.

PITTSBURGH & BRADENTON RBI (REVIVING BASEBALL IN INNER CITIES)

The Pittsburgh RBI (Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities) program, run through the Boys and Girls Clubs of Western PA, provides equipment, coaching, educational programs and the opportunity to participate in the City of Pittsburgh BIG League sports program to more than 900 youth athletes. Throughout the year, the Pirates provide the program with a wide variety of resources and assistance. During the off-season, the Pirates hosted coaches' clinics conducted by Pirates alumni, including John Wehner and Grant Jackson. In-season, PNC Park ballgirls hosted a softball clinic for female RBI participants. A financial literacy seminar entitled "Skills that Pay the Bills." was offered to RBI participants by program partner KPMG.

The Senior Boys team of the Bradenton RBI program played in the RBI World Series at Target Field in Minneapolis. After winning the South Bracket, Bradenton fell to the Jackie Robinson RBI team of Jersey City, NJ with a final score of 8-7.

CLEMENTE DAY SCHOOL INITIATIVE

MLB's league-wide Clemente Day celebration was held on September 18, and Pirates players and coaches honored the life and community service legacy of Hall-of-Famer Roberto Clemente by delivering over $25,000 of supplies to Pittsburgh Dilworth Elementary School in the East End. Each year, Pirates Charities selects a school in partnership with Pittsburgh Public Schools and the Pittsburgh Promise to receive a donation of needed supplies, and a school-wide assembly starring Pirates players and coaches to teach kids the importance of giving back. At Dilworth, each student took home a book bag with Pirates gear and a book inside, and the school received 25 iPads, a charging station and recess equipment.

FANTASY BASEBALL

In 2011, the Pittsburgh Pirates introduced the Fantasy Baseball Math Program in four classrooms within the Diocese of Pittsburgh. Fantasy Baseball is an integrated math program for students in grades 4-8 and is aligned with the Pennsylvania State Exams in the areas of mathematics, reading and physical education. Students learn mathematics skills through baseball statistics in a way that is fun and engaging, and use statistics from current Pirates Players, as well as player cards they create, to compete against one another in simulated baseball games. The program promotes higher order science, technology, engineering and math skills (STEM), in preparation for math-based careers.

Pirates Charities expanded the program in 2012, with the support of Pirates General Manager Neal Huntington and his wife Becca. The program was carried out in partnership with the Diocese of Pittsburgh and the Boys & Girls Clubs of Western Pennsylvania. A total of 13 Boys and Girls Clubs sites and five classrooms within the Diocese of Pittsburgh implemented the curriculum, which aligns with the Common Core Standards. A total of 418 students participated in the program which culminated in a playoff tournament and World Series at PNC Park in June, 2012.

VIP PARTIES

The Pirates and Pirates Charities hosted six VIP (Very Important Pirate) parties in 2012. On these special nights, children from local youth-support organizations spent an evening at the ballpark in true VIP style – complete with a meet-and-greet with Pirates players and coaches, Pirates goodie bags, a seat for the game in a luxury suite, and a delicious ballpark buffet provided by Levy Restaurants through their Levy Cares program. Through "Bowling with the Bucs," hosted by Joel and Kim Hanrahan and Chris and Kara Resop, each VIP group received a $5,000 donation from Pirates Charities. Our 2012 VIPs were: Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Pittsburgh, The Children's Institute's Day School Graduating Class, The Sarah Heinz House, The Leukemia and Lymphoma Society of Western PA and West Virginia Chapter, Highmark's Caring Place and Every Child, Inc.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

PLAYER INVOLVEMENT

CLINT HURDLE

Pirates Manager Clint Hurdle and his wife Karla, along with Pirates Charities and ROOT Sports, hosted the Wins for Kids campaign for a second year in 2012. Pirates fans made a monetary pledge to Pirates Charities for each Pirates win during the season, and one-time donations were also accepted. Funds raised benefited Pirates Charities and the Prader-Willi Syndrome program at The Children's Institute of Pittsburgh. Prader-Willi is a rare, complex genetic disorder that affects many parts of the body and The Children's Institute is the only hospital-based site in the world offering treatment for this population. Thanks to a generous contribution by Trib Total Media and Pirates fans throughout the region, more than $40,000 was raised.

Clint and John Stanik, retired CEO of Calgon Carbon Corporation, also co-chaired the annual Heart Walk for the American Heart Association on Saturday, November 3.

CUTCH'S CREW

Cutch's Crew is comprised of 20 student athletes from the Oliver and Perry High School baseball teams and was created in conjunction with The Pittsburgh Promise and Pittsburgh Public Schools. McCutchen worked with his "Crew" throughout the summer, inviting them to the ballpark as well as spending time with them at several outings away from the field. The time they spent with Cutch helped prepare them for the transition into one team as the two traditionally rival schools merged in August.

MORTON'S MILITARY SUPPORT

Pitcher Charlie Morton and his wife Cindy hosted 40 members of the military and their families at the July 4th Pirates/Astros game at PNC Park. Families were selected in partnership with Operation Troop Appreciation and the Wounded Warrior Project. Each soldier received a special gift bag, complete with ARAMARK food vouchers and a Pirates camo jersey.

PIRATES COMMUNITY COMMITMENT PROGRAM

The Pirates Community Commitment Program (PCCP) is an organization-wide community service program for Pirates Minor League Players that promotes community service and awareness, providing benefit to the community, the individual player and the Pirates organization.

Near the conclusion of each team's regular season, each Affiliate selected one player to receive the "Pirates Community Commitment Award" in recognition of his contributions to the program in his respective Affiliate city. Winners were recognized in a special on-field ceremony during the Clemente Day celebrations.

CHUCK TANNER AWARD

Tom Prince was awarded the second annual Chuck Tanner Award in Spring Training 2012. The Tanner Award is given to a minor league staff member who best exemplifies Tanner's optimism, work ethic and leadership. Prince, who is currently the minor league Coordinator of Instruction, lead the Gulf Coast League Pirates to a championship in 2012. He was the 2008 GCL Manager of the Year.

Tom made his major league debut with the Pirates in September 1987 and played parts of 17 seasons with Pittsburgh, Los Angeles, Philadelphia, Minnesota and Kansas City.

MANAGER

CLINT HURDLE 13

MANAGER

AGE: 55 (turns 56 on July 30)
BORN: 7/30/57 in Big Rapids, MI
RESIDES: Pittsburgh, PA
APPOINTED: 11/15/10

POSITION PLAYED: OF
CONTRACT: Signed thru 2014 (club option for 2015)

Clint Hurdle was named manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates on November 15, 2010, thus becoming the 39th manager in the organization's history. The 2013 season will mark his 39th overall in professional baseball.

In his first two seasons, Hurdle and the Pirates have increased their win total from 57 in 2010 to 72 in 2011 and 79 in 2012. His 2012 club was over .500 every day from June 3 thru September 18 and reached a season-high 16 games over .500 four times, most recently at 63-47 on August 8. Beginning on August 9, however, the Bucs went 16-36 in their final 52 games and finished the campaign with a 79-83 record and a fourth-place finish in the Central Division. The Pirates were in first place (alone or tied) a total of 15 days in 2012 and had their largest lead (2.0 games) after improving to 46-36 on July 5.

Hurdle participates in many activities all season long, including visits to the Children's Institute and participating in the annual Pitch For Hope Women's Baseball Clinic

Hurdle captured his 600th career managerial victory with the Pirates' 5-4 win over the Astros at PNC Park on September 7, 2011.

Hurdle spent the 2010 season as the Hitting Coach of the American League champion Texas Rangers, a club that led the Major Leagues with a .276 batting average during the regular season - paced by A.L. MVP Josh Hamilton (.359 average, 32 home runs and 100 RBI) and Vladimir Guerrero (.300 average, 29 home runs and 115 RBI).

Prior to joining the Texas coaching staff on November 5, 2009, Hurdle spent over 15 years in the Colorado organization, serving as a minor league hitting coordinator, Major League hitting coach and manager at the big league level. He compiled a 543-625 record while serving the Rockies as manager from April 26, 2002, until he was relieved of his duties on May 29, 2009. Clint has the most wins of any manager in Colorado team history, winning his 500th career game on August 29, 2008 at Los Angeles.

In 2007, Hurdle led the Rockies to the World Series as the club captured its first National League pennant in franchise history. The 2007 club, which won 11 straight games in September, won 21 of its 22 games leading up to the World Series, where Boston pulled off a four-game sweep. During the 2007 post season, the Rockies swept the Phillies in the Division Series and Arizona in the Championship Series before falling to the Red Sox in the Fall Classic.

For his efforts in 2007, Hurdle received four first-place votes and finished third in the voting for N.L. Manager-of-the-Year. His '07 squad also compiled the highest single-season fielding pct. in Major League history (.989), a mark that still stands. Clint also served as manager of the National League in the 2008 All-Star Game at Yankee Stadium, the longest game (time, innings) in All-Star history (the N.L. lost 4-3 in 15 innings in a game that lasted 4:50). Hurdle was also a coach for the N.L. staff during the 2004 All-Star Game in Houston.

Hurdle's managerial career at the Major League level began with a 4-1 victory over the Phillies at Coors Field on April 26, 2002. He replaced Buddy Bell as Colorado's skipper that day and went 6-0 in his first six games - tied for the sixth-best winning streak by a manager following a mid-season managerial change in Major League history (Joe Morgan holds the record as his Red Sox won their first 12 games in 1988).

In his five-plus years tutoring Colorado's hitters, the club compiled the N.L.'s top two averages in 70 years (.294 in 2000 and .292 in 2001) and the league's most base hits since 1930 (1,664 in 2000). In 2001 alone, the Rockies established a Major League record for total bases (2,748) and the N.L. mark for extra-base hits (598). Hurdle, who doubled as the club's First Base Coach from 1997-98, remained on the coaching staff under three different Colorado managers; Don Baylor, Jim Leyland and Buddy Bell. Prior to becoming Hitting Coach in 1997, Clint served the Rockies as their minor league hitting instructor from 1994-96.

Before he joined the Colorado organization, Hurdle managed in the New York Mets system for six seasons (1988-1993) and compiled a 412-418 record. In his first season as a manager, and in St. Lucie's first year of existence, he led the club to a second-half division title and the Florida State League championship. Hurdle also took his 1989 St. Lucie club and the 1990 Jackson team to the post season, losing in the first round of the playoffs each year. After managing Williamsport in the Eastern League in 1991, Clint wrapped up his minor league managerial career with two seasons at the Triple-A level with Tidewater in 1992 and Norfolk in 1993.

Hurdle played parts of 10 seasons in the Major Leagues with the Royals, Reds, Mets and Cardinals.

Primarily an outfielder during his playing days, Hurdle was selected by Kansas City in the first round (9th player overall) of the 1975 June draft. After three full seasons in the minor leagues, which included American Association Rookie-of-the-Year and All-Star Game MVP honors while playing with Omaha in 1977, Clint made his Major League debut at the age of 20 with the Royals on September 18, 1977, and hit a two-run homer off Seattle's Glenn Abbott in his second at bat.

Hurdle made his Major League debut at the age of 20 with the Royals on September 18, 1977.

Hurdle played parts of 10 seasons in the Major Leagues with the Royals (1977-1981), Reds (1982), Mets (1983, 1985, 1987) and Cardinals (1986) and compiled a .259 average, 81 doubles, 12 triples, 32 home runs and 193 RBI in 515 career games. He appeared in the post season twice with Kansas City, going 3-for-8 with an RBI in four games against the Yankees in the 1978 A.L.C.S., and advancing as far as the World Series in 1980, only to lose in four games to the Phillies.

After spending the 1982 season in the Cincinnati organization, Hurdle was signed by New York as a minor league free agent prior to the 1983 campaign and played three years in the Mets system before being selected by St. Louis in the 1985 Rule 5 Draft. In his final season as a player (1987), Clint appeared in 97 games with Triple-A Tidewater and went 1-for-3 in three games with the Mets. In his big league career, he made 240 appearances in right field, 96 in left field, 92 at first base, 22 at catcher and 15 at third base. Hurdle, who hit the final home run in Minnesota's historical Metropolitan Stadium on 9/30/81, hit his final big league homer on 9/9/86 at Three Rivers Stadium - a solo shot off Pittsburgh's Rick Reuschel.

Jeff Banister was officially named the Bench Coach of the Pirates on 11/24/10. He served the Major League club in that same capacity in 2010 from August 8 thru the end of the season.

Now in his 28th season with the Pittsburgh organization, Banister spent eight years as the club's Minor League Field Coordinator after working the previous four (1999-2002) as the Field Coordinator at the big league level.

Jeff took part in the Braddock RBI Clinic in 2012

Originally selected by the Pirates in the 25th round of the 1986 June free agent draft, Jeff began his professional playing career with Watertown. He compiled a .247 batting average, 37 home runs and 204 RBI in 515 minor league games. Banister made his Major League debut and only big league appearance as a pinch hitter with the Pirates on 7/23/91. He owns a career Major League batting average of 1.000, having singled off Atlanta's Dan Petry at Three Rivers Stadium in his only big league at bat. Jeff went on to miss the entire 1992 season due to right elbow surgery.

Banister served as a player/coach with Carolina (AA) in 1993 before beginning his managerial career with Welland in the New York-Penn League in 1994. He moved on to manage Augusta (A) in 1995 and Lynchburg (A) for 1996 and the first half of the 1997 campaign. His Augusta club captured the 1995 South Atlantic League championship. Jeff replaced Marc Hill as manager at Carolina for the remainder of the 1997 season and spent the entire 1998 campaign at the Mudcats helm. In his five seasons as a minor league manager, Banny compiled a 299-330 (.475) record. He also managed in the Hawaiian Winter League in 1995 and 1996; his team advanced to the playoffs each season, with his Honolulu club winning the championship in 1995. In 2004, Jeff managed Lynchburg for two weeks during a managerial change.

Banister made a single appearance for the Pirates in 1991 and has a 1.000 Major League BA

JAY BELL

3

HITTING COACH

AGE: 47
BORN: 12/11/65 at Eglin Air Force Base, FL
RESIDES: Phoenix, AZ

APPOINTED: 10/31/12
POSITION PLAYED: INF

Jay Bell returned to the Pittsburgh organization on October 31, 2012, when he was named the club's Major League Hitting Coach. He spent eight years as the team's shortstop from 1989 to 1996, setting a career high with a .310 batting average and being named to the Silver Slugger team in 1993. He also captured a Rawlings Gold Glove Award in 1993 after committing a league-low 11 errors and was named to the National League All-Star team that season.

Jay participated in PirateFest 2012

This past November, Bell served as the Hitting Coach for the New Zealand National Team in the World Baseball Classic qualifying tournament in Taipei City, Taiwan (the Diamondblacks lost to Taiwan in the final game). He also served as a coach for Team USA in 2010 during the Pro Am qualifier in Puerto Rico and in 2011 during the World Cup played in Panama, along with the Pan Am games played in Mexico.

Following an 18-year Major League playing career in which he hit .265 with 195 home runs and 860 RBI, Bell spent two years with the Arizona Diamondbacks as Bob Melvin's Bench Coach in 2005-06 and three seasons as an advisor for the club during spring training (2007-09).

In 2012, Jay spent the season as the Hitting Coach for the Southern League champion Mobile BayBears, Arizona's Double-A affiliate that was managed by Turner Ward.

A two-time All-Star, Bell retired as a player after appearing in 72 games with the New York Mets in 2003. While playing with Arizona in 2001, Bell will be best-remembered for jumping into Matt Williams' arms after scoring the winning run in Game Seven of the World Series against the New York Yankees. He is also one of five players on Arizona's inaugural roster in 1998 who participated in the 2001 World Series with the D-Backs (also Brian Anderson, David Dellucci, Damian Miller and Williams).

Bell played over 1000 games with the Pirates between 1989-1996

Originally selected by Minnesota in the first round of the 1984 June draft, Bell made his Major League debut with Cleveland in 1986 and homered on the first pitch he saw in his first big league at bat against Hall-of-Famer Bert Blyleven - one year after being traded for Blyleven. He became the 11th player ever to homer on the first big league pitch thrown to him, a feat matched by current Bucco outfielder Starling Marte in 2012.

Bell was acquired by Pittsburgh in March of 1989 and became the Pirates everyday shortstop a year later. In 1106 career games with the Pirates, Bell hit .269 with 78 homers and 423 RBI. He also produced a .282 average in 20 post-season games with Pittsburgh, which included a .414 (12-for-29) average during the 1991 N.L.C.S. against Atlanta. Bell still holds the Pittsburgh club record for most sacrifice bunts in a season (39 in 1990) and led the National League in that category in 1990 and 1991 (30).

Bell's 78 home runs hit as a shortstop in a Pittsburgh uniform rank second all-time behind Hall-of-Famer Arky Vaughan (84) and are 10 ahead of Hall-of-Famer Honus Wagner, who hit 68 during his career as the Pirates shortstop.

In 1999, Jay made the transition from shortstop to second base while setting career highs in home runs (38), RBI (112) and runs (132) with Arizona. For his efforts that season, he was elected to start at second base during the All-Star Game in Boston.

PERSONAL: Jay Stuart Bell...Wife's name is Laura...Has three children; daughter Brianna (8/5/91) and sons Brantley (11/16/94) and Brock (3/18/98)...Is a 1984 graduate of Tate High School in Gonzalez, FL, where he led his senior baseball team to the Quad-A State title... Was named the 1993 Dapper Dan Man-of-the-Year, and award given annually since 1936 to a Pittsburgh sports figure in recognition of outstanding achievement on a national level...Was also the 1993 recipient of the Pittsburgh Points of Light Foundation Award for his community service work...Following the 1999 season, he partnered with Tiger Woods in the Pro-Am of the Williams World Challenge at Grayhawk Golf Club in Scottsdale...Participated in PirateFest this past December.

DID YOU KNOW...

That the Pirates led the Major Leagues with 146 runs scored during the month of June in 2012 and ranked fifth among all teams (third in the N.L.) with 130 runs scored the following month. The last time the Pirates led the Majors in runs scored in back-to-back months was during a three-month stretch in 1971 when they plated 175 runs in June, 149 in July and 140 in August.

Jeff's first Major League home run came on June 12, 1993; a two-run shot off John Smoltz at Fulton County Stadium in Atlanta.

Branson played six of his nine Major League seasons with Cincinnati

Branson played a total of nine seasons in the big leagues and produced a .246 batting average (383-for-1555), 34 home runs and 156 RBI in 694 games. Nick Leyva joined Manager Clint Hurdle's staff as the Third Base Coach on November 24, 2010. In addition to his role as the Third Base Coach, he will serve as the Club's Infield Coach.

The 2013 season marks Leyva's 37th in professional baseball and his 19th at the Major League level. He spent the 2010 season as the Bench Coach for the Toronto Blue Jays - under Manager Cito Gaston - after working the previous two seasons as Toronto's Third Base Coach.

An infielder during his playing days, Leyva was selected by St. Louis in the 24th round of the 1975 First-Year Player Draft and began his professional career with Class-A Sarasota that summer. After a three-year playing career, which concluded with a stint at Double-A Arkansas in 1977, Leyva began his managerial/coaching career as a manager in the St. Louis farm system with Johnson City in 1977.

In his first six seasons managing in the minor leagues (1978-1983), Leyva posted 350-340 (.507) record and was named the Texas League Manager-of-the-Year in 1983 after guiding Arkansas to a 69-67 record and second-half division title.

Nick served the Cardinals as their First Base Coach at the big league level for two years (1984-85) before moving across the diamond to the third base coaching box for three years. In addition, he managed in the Puerto Rican Winter League for three years, winning the Championship and being named Manager-of-the-Year with Mayaguez in 1986.

After his five seasons as a coach with the Cardinals, the Philadelphia Phillies named Leyva their Manager on October 3, 1988. At 37 years of age at the time, he was the youngest skipper of the Phillies since 1960 (Gene Mauch - 34). Leyva guided the Phillies to a 77-85 record in his second year at the helm, showing a 10-game improvement from his rookie campaign. Philadelphia, however, let Leyva go on April 24, 1991, after he got off to a 4-9 start that season.

Leyva joined the Toronto organization for the first time in 1992 when he was hired to manage Triple-A Syracuse, a position he held for two seasons before serving the Blue Jays as their Third Base Coach from 1994-97. In that time, he also managed Lara in the Venezuelan Winter League in 1995 and 1996.

After working two years in private business, Nick spent seven seasons in the Chicago White Sox organization. He was a manager at the Triple-A level with Charlotte for two seasons prior to being named the Appalachian League Manager-of-the-Year in 2002 after guiding his Bristol club to a 43-25 record and a league title. He also won a Puerto Rican League championship with Mayaguez in 2002, one year after leading Lara to the Venezuelan Winter League championship.

For two years (2003-04), Leyva served the White Sox as their Minor League Infield Instructor before returning to the managerial post with Charlotte in 2005 and Bristol in 2006.

Leyva spent the 2007 season as the Third Base Coach with the Milwaukee Brewers. His last stint as a manager came in 2008 when he spent the first three months in the Mets farm system with Kingsport in the Appalachian League. He guided the K-Mets to a 1-2 record before being named Toronto's Third Base Coach on June 20 that season.

In his 14 seasons as a minor league manager, Leyva has posted a 714-777 (.479) record. He also captured three Winter League Championships while managing in Puerto Rico and Venezuela for seven seasons.

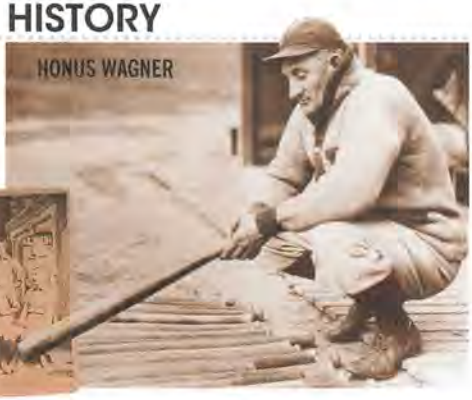
HISTORY

PITTSBURGH PIRATES TEAM HISTORY

Now in their 127th National League season, the Pittsburgh Pirates own a history filled with World Championships, legendary players and some of baseball's most dramatic games and moments.



HONUS WAGNER

1885 ALLEGHENYS

The Pirates' roots in Pittsburgh actually date back to April 15, 1876, when the Pittsburgh Alleghenys brought professional baseball to the city by playing their first game at Union Park. In 1877, the Alleghenys were accepted into the minor-league International Association, but disbanded the following year.

Baseball returned to Pittsburgh for good in 1882 when the Alleghenys reformed and joined the American Association, a rival of the National League. After the 1886 season, the Kansas City franchise was expelled from the N.L. and Pittsburgh President William A. Nimmick's application for membership was accepted.

On April 30, 1887, the Alleghenys defeated the defending league-champion Chicago White Stockings, 6-2, before a crowd of nearly 10,000 at Recreation Park. The victorious beginning was not an indication of things to come, however, as the team managed to finish higher than fifth only once in the 13 remaining seasons of the century. In 1890, the Alleghenys' roster was demolished when key players jumped to a new rival to the National League — the Players League. They staggered to a club-record 113 losses as the two leagues engaged in a bitter battle over talent.

LOUIS BIERBAUER

When the Players League folded after only one season, all players were expected to return to the clubs they played for in 1889. But in 1891 Pittsburgh signed Louis Bierbauer, a second baseman with Brooklyn of the Players League who had spent the previous four seasons with the Philadelphia Athletics. The A's and their American Association brethren immediately accused Pittsburgh of "pirating" Bierbauer away from them. Pittsburgh kept the player and the nickname and became known as the Pirates thereafter.

BARNEY DREYFUSS

The fortunes of the Pirates turned in 1900 when the National League reduced its membership from 12 to eight teams. As part of the move, Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the defunct Louisville club, acquired controlling interest of the Pirates. In the largest player transaction in Pirates history, the Hall-of-Fame owner brought 14 players with him from the Louisville roster, including Hall of Famers Honus Wagner, Fred Clarke and Rube Waddell — plus standouts Deacon Phillippe, Chief Zimmer, Claude Ritchey and Tommy Leach. All would play significant roles as the Pirates became the league's dominant franchise, winning pennants in 1901, 1902 and 1903 and a World championship in 1909.

Wagner, dubbed "The Flying Dutchman," was the game's premier player during the decade, winning seven batting titles and leading the majors in hits (1,850) and RBI (956) from 1900-1909. One of the pioneers of the game, Dreyfuss is sometimes called "The Father of the World Series" because he challenged Henry Killilea, the owner of the American League champion Boston Pilgrims, to a post-season playoff in 1903 to determine who was baseball's best team. On October 1, 1903, Phillippe defeated the legendary Cy Young, 7-3, in the first World Series game ever played. Boston, however, later emerged as the Series winner, overcoming a three-games-to-one deficit to win the best-of-nine competition, five games to three.

The Pirates finished as runner-up three times in the next five years before getting another shot at a World Series title in 1909. The Bucs won a club-record 110 games that year with three pitchers — Howie Camnitz (25), Vic Willis (22) and Lefty Leifield (19) combining for 66 victories. The Series pitted the league's batting champions — Wagner and Detroit's Ty Cobb against each other, but rookie pitcher Babe Adams, who was 12-3 during the regular season, emerged as the Series hero for the Pirates.

While Camnitz, Willis and Leifield failed to win a game, Adams won three, including a six-hit shutout in the seventh and deciding game. It was the last of four titles the Pirates would win under Clarke, who managed the club until 1915.

The 1909 season also marked the beginning of a new era in ballparks as the Pirates christened Forbes Field on June 30 that year. Since 1891, the Pirates had called Exposition Park — which was located on virtually the same site as Three Rivers Stadium — their home. Described as the "Hialeah of Ballparks" when it opened, Forbes Field would remain the home of the Pirates for six decades and would host many great moments.

Pittsburgh sank to the league's second division for most of the next decade, but by the early 1920's — with an influx of outstanding talent which included future Hall of Famers Pie Traynor, Kiki Cuyler, Rabbit Maranville and Max Carey — Pittsburgh was again a contender. After three straight third-place finishes from 1922 to 1924, the Pirates won the N.L. title by eight and a half games over the second-place New York Giants in 1925.

The Series matched Pittsburgh against the Washington Senators, who jumped out to a three-games-to-one lead. The Pirates, however, bounced back to win the final three games and the Series. Their miraculous comeback included a 15-hit pounding of Hall of Famer Walter "Big Train" Johnson in Game Seven.

In 1926, a rookie named Paul Waner joined the Bucs and batted .336. A year later, his brother Lloyd joined him and belted out 223 hits for a club rookie record .355 average and the Pirates were again National League champions. Paul, who was nicknamed "Big Poison" — batted .300 or better 14 times, captured three batting titles and collected 200 or more hits in eight different seasons. He was named the league's Most Valuable Player in 1927 and went on to compile 3,152 hits and a .333 career batting average. Lloyd — who was tagged "Little Poison" — hit .300 or better in 10 of his first 12 seasons, compiled a career mark of .316 and accumulated 2,450 hits. Both were elected to the Hall of Fame.

The 1927 World Series featured the Pirates against New York's famed "Murderer's Row" with Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig who swept Pittsburgh in four straight games. The next 33 years, Pirate fans went without a pennant winner, although they were not denied their share of great players and great moments.

The Waners were consistently among baseball's premier hitters during the 1930's with Paul amassing more hits (1,959) during the decade than any player in baseball. Traynor was one of the era's best all-around players and is generally regarded as one of the finest third basemen ever to play the game. Shortstop Arky Vaughan topped the .300-mark in each of his 10 seasons with the Pirates (1932-1941) and his .385 average in 1935 has gone unequalled by any National League performer. He, too, is enshrined at Cooperstown.

RALPH KINER

Hall of Famer Ralph Kiner won or shared the N.L. home run title in each of the seven seasons that he wore a Pirates uniform (1946-52) — which is a streak that has never been matched in either league. In 1956, Pirate first baseman Dale Long hit home runs in a record eight straight games between May 19th and May 28th (that mark was matched by Don Mattingly in 1987 and Ken Griffey Jr. in 1993). Three years later, Harvey Haddix hurled what many consider the greatest game ever pitched when he retired 36 straight Milwaukee Braves hitters over 12 innings on May 26, 1959. The same year, ElRoy Face won 17 straight games in relief.

Though the Pirates failed to finish higher than seventh from 1950 through 1957, the foundation for another championship was being put into place. Standout players were added throughout the decade, including 2001 Hall-of-Fame inductee Bill Mazeroski, Dick Groat, Vernon Law, Bob Friend, Bill Virdon, Face and Hall-of-Fame right fielder Roberto Clemente.

In 1956, Pirate owner John Galbreath hired Joe L. Brown as general manager. With the club languishing in last place at 36-67 midway through the 1957 campaign, Brown promoted coach Danny Murtaugh to field manager. Within three seasons, the Bucs were again champions of the National League and again matched against the powerful New York Yankees in the World Series. This time the Bronx Bombers featured Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris.

DANNY MURTAUGH

BILL MAZEROSKI

The 1960 World Series remains one of the most incredible post-season encounters ever on record. The Yankees won Game Two, Game Three and Game Six by a combined score of 38-3, but the Pirates used great pitching, defense and timely hitting to stretch the Series to a seventh game at Forbes Field. Pittsburgh took a 9-7 lead into the ninth — thanks to Hal Smith's three-run homer in the eighth — but the Yankees came up with two runs in the top of the ninth to tie the score. The game and the Series ended, however, in the bottom of the ninth as Mazeroski belted what is perhaps the most dramatic home run in baseball history off Ralph Terry. Mazeroski was the only player in baseball history ever to end a World Series with a home run until Joe Carter of Toronto accomplished the feat in Game Six of the 1993 Fall Classic.

During the 1960's, Clemente established himself among the game's elite players. He collected more hits (1,877) than anyone during the decade and would go on to reach the 3,000-hit plateau in 1972. During his marvelous career, he topped the .300 mark 13 times, won four batting titles and was named the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1966.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE

During the 1970's, the Pirates were again among baseball's premier teams. In that 10-year span, they won six division titles and finished as low as third only once. In the first 25 years of divisional play, the Bucs won more games (2,100) and finished first more often (nine times) than any other N.L. East club. The Pirates put together a 2,100-1,878 record during that period (.528 winning %).

The Pirates captured two more World Championships during the 1970's. Their 1971 victory over Baltimore was a showcase for Clemente, who batted .414 and received the Series MVP award. In 1979, the Pirates became only the fourth team in history to erase a three-games-to-one deficit when they again bested the Orioles in seven games. Hall of Famer Willie Stargell took home MVP honors — as he did during the regular season — with a .400 batting average, three home runs (including the Series' deciding blow in Game Seven) and seven RBI. It was a fitting conclusion to the decade for Stargell, who was the leading home run hitter of the 1970's (296). While the Pirates brought two world championships back to Pittsburgh during the 1970s, the Pittsburgh Steelers also came to prominence. The Steelers won four Super Bowls during the 70s, which, coupled with the Pirates success, helped garner Pittsburgh the "City of Champions" label.

Pittsburgh was on the brink of a World Series berth in both the 1991 and 1992 season, but the Pirates lost the seventh and deciding game each year to the Atlanta Braves. In 1992, Pittsburgh came within three outs of the Fall Classic. But in the bottom of the ninth inning at Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium, the Braves triumphed with three runs and won the game 3-2 and the series, four-games-to-three.

The people of Pittsburgh and the surrounding Tri-State area responded well to the club's success in the nineties as the Pirates drew in excess of two million fans in both 1990 and 1991. A crowd of 59,568, the largest ever to watch a professional baseball game in Pittsburgh, witnessed the 65th Major League Baseball All-Star Game, played at Three Rivers Stadium on July 12, 1994. In one of the most thrilling All-Star Games ever to be played, the National League prevailed over the American League in extra frames. Fred McGriff helped send the game into extra innings when he delivered a two-run, pinch-hit home run off Lee Smith in the bottom of the ninth inning that tied the score. After the American League failed to score in the top of the 10th inning, the National League broke it's six-game losing streak when Tony Gwynn scored on a double by Moises Alou.

On October 2, 1985, the Galbreath family and Warner Communications sold the club to Pittsburgh Associates; a group of private investors who were committed to keeping the team in Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh Associates was made up of 10 investors representing six corporations, three individuals and Carnegie Mellon University. The group included the Aluminum Company of America, Mellon Bank, PNC Financial Corporation, PPG Industries, USX Corporation, Westinghouse Electric Company, Eugene and Raymond Litman, John McConnell and Harvey M. Walken.

After several lean years in the mid-eighties, the Pirates returned to contention in 1988 when they finished in second place and broke the club's 28-year-old attendance mark.

With players like Barry Bonds, Doug Drabek, Bobby Bonilla and Andy Van Slyke, Pittsburgh started the decade of the 1990's in fine fashion, winning the N.L. East title three straight years. The Bucs became the first team to win three straight division titles since the Philadelphia Phillies accomplished the feat between 1976 and 1978. Bonds captured MVP honors in 1990 and 1992, while Drabek won the Cy Young award in '90. Manager Jim Leyland took home N.L. Manager-of-the-Year honors in both 1990 and 1992. In his 11 seasons at the helm, Leyland won 849 games, placing him third on the club's All-Time Managerial win list.

DOUG DRABEK

A new chapter of Pirate history began on February 14, 1996, when Kevin McClatchy and his group of investors purchased the storied franchise from Pittsburgh Associates.

Picked by many publications to finish last in 1997, the Pirates remained in the division race until the final weekend of the season and the club was named USA Today's "Organization of the Year" at the conclusion of the season. Major League Baseball also underwent a change in 1997 with the birth of Interleague play. That season, the Pirates welcomed the Kansas City Royals to Three Rivers Stadium on June 13 for the club's first interleague matchup, which Pittsburgh won by a score of 5-3. While the Bucs contended for the division during the entire season, one of the most memorable moments of the season came on July 12, 1997. That night, pitchers Francisco Cordova and Ricardo Rincon thrilled Pirates fans with the only combined, extra-inning no-hitter in major league history. The game ended in the bottom of the 10th inning when Mark Smith delivered a three-run home run for the 3-0 win.

The 2000 season brought an end to a full century of great moments, a 100-year period which began with three straight National League pennants and ended with an aura of hope and dreams of more championships to come. With a new home on the horizon, the Bucs said goodbye to Three Rivers Stadium with their final game ever played there on October 1, 2000. Three no-hitters, Clemente's 3000th hit, two All-Star Games, countless playoff games, two World Championships and endless summer evenings can be associated with no other place in the history of Pittsburgh than Three Rivers Stadium.

The Pirates closed out their 30-year tenure at Three Rivers Stadium with a 10-9 loss to the Chicago Cubs in the final game of what was the club's home since 1970. Pittsburgh native John Wehner smacked the final home run in the history of the ballpark off Chicago's Jon Lieber. Ironically, Wehner also grounded out to third base for the final out ever at Three Rivers. With the loss, Pittsburgh closed out Three Rivers Stadium with a record of 1,324 wins and 1,082 losses.

In the early morning of February 11, 2001, Pittsburgh bid farewell to Three Rivers when the home of the Pirates and Steelers was imploded.

PNC Park officially opened its gates on April 9, 2001. Regarded by many as the best ballpark ever built, PNC Park is an intimate two-level structure which offers all fans dramatic views of the downtown skyline as well as the natural grass playing surface. After touring all 30 major league ballparks during the summer of 2003, ESPN.com ranked PNC Park as the best in baseball.

The anticipation and joy of a new ballpark turned to sorrow, when on the morning of the first regular season game at PNC Park, a beloved member of the Pirates family was lost when Willie Stargell passed away on April 9, 2001.

Despite suffering 100 losses for just the seventh time in club history in 2001, fans came out in record numbers as the Bucs played in front of 19 sellouts and a total of 2,436,139 customers during the inaugural season at PNC Park.

On June 25, 2002, the Pirates registered the 9,000th win in the history of the franchise with a 4-1 victory over the Montreal Expos, thus becoming just the fourth club to produce 9,000 wins.

The Pirates have had a long list of sluggers in their history and Brian Giles added his name to that list during his five seasons in a Bucco uniform. He hit 30 or more home runs in each of his first four seasons with the club, just one of three Pirates to hit 30 or more long balls in four consecutive years (also Hall-of-Famers Ralph Kiner and Willie Stargell). His 165 home runs with Pittsburgh rank sixth in club history.

JASON KENDALL

Catcher Jason Kendall spent each of his first nine big league seasons in a Pittsburgh uniform after being selected in the first round of the 1992 June draft. In that time, he made 1,205 appearances behind the plate. That figure ranks first all-time in the annals of the club, 50 games ahead of George Gibson, who caught for the Bucs from 1906 thru 1915. Kendall surpassed Gibson's 90-year-old record in Los Angeles on August 3, 2004.

For the first time in team history a Pittsburgh player captured Rookie-of-the-Year honors as outfielder Jason Bay took home the honors in 2004. A two-time National League All-Star, Bay was a fan favorite at the 2006 All-Star Game in Pittsburgh.

The national spotlight shined once again on the city of Pittsburgh during the 2006 season as the Major League Baseball All-Star Game was played at PNC Park, marking the fifth time the event has been held in the Steel City. The American League won a dramatic 3-2 decision in the Midsummer Classic as the Pirates became the first team in baseball history to host the All-Star Game in three different venues.

Also in 2006, Freddy Sanchez added his name to the club's record list of 25 batting champions as his .344 average led the National League. Sanchez banged out 200 hits in 2006 and led the N.L. with 53 doubles while being named to his first of two All-Star teams.

On January 18, 2007, Bob Nutting officially assumed control of the ballclub, thus becoming only the sixth principal owner in the Pirates storied history. Following a deep look into the team's operations, Nutting has built a fundamentally different organization by introducing Frank Coonelly as the team's new president on September 13, 2007 and, in-turn, Neal Huntington as the team's new general manager on September 25, 2007. From there the new leadership team has made significant changes to each of the three major areas – Major League manager/coaching staff, Scouting Director and Farm Director, with the goal of building an organization that can consistently compete.

FRANK COONELLY WITH BOB NUTTING AND CHUCK TANNER ON OPENING DAY 2008

In the last few seasons, fans witnessed the debut of 2005 first-round draft pick Andrew McCutchen and the appearance of many other young players, including Pedro Alvarez, Neil Walker and Starling Marte.

Bucco fans have produced record crowds in 2011 and 2012 as the Pirates played host to 34 sellouts in those back-to-back seasons.

ANDREW McCUTCHEN

McCutchen emerged as one of the best players in the game, winning a Gold Glove and Silver Slugger award in 2012 while finishing third in the National League MVP voting.

PITTSBURGH PIRATES UNIFORM HISTORY

1902

1900-1910: The jersey of this period was short-sleeved with no trim except for a dark blue collar. Stockings were dark blue with red stripes and the cap was blue with a white "P". A "PBC" monogram signifying Pittsburgh Baseball Club was also added to the left sleeve later in the decade.

1912

1910-1920: The regular collar was replaced by the short, stand-up "cadet" style with a button collar. Pinstriped material was also introduced. As the team nickname became more accepted, "Pirates" was displayed in capital letters down the button lapel (1912). The cadet-style collar soon gave way to a tapered collar extension, but the button lapel remained solid dark blue with white buttons and a "P-P" straddling the top button (1913-14). Later in this decade, the cap had piping and also included a "P" in white or red.

1921-1932: Standard white uniforms were worn at home and gray on the road with simple graphics and solid colors. The 1925 & '27 championship teams wore the standard capital "P" on its sleeves but not on the jersey. A red "P" was also placed on the solid blue cap.

1933-1937: The Pirate uniforms brightened up considerably with added colors, trim features and graphics. The name "Pirates" was placed across the jersey in an arc of fancy red and blue capital letters. Solid blue belts were included and piping trim on the uniforms included blue and red.

1938-1939: The name "Pirates" appeared on the jersey in script lettering with underline flourish.

1940-1941: The uniform abandons the traditional "P" or "Pirates" for an emblem of an actual buccaneer. The patch was placed on the left breast of both the home and road jerseys. This was the first time an emblem of the team's nickname was ever worn on a game jersey.

1938

1940-1944: A zipper front replaced the button-down jersey.

1942-1947: Team adds an arc "Pirates" (home) and "Pittsburgh" (away).

1948: The team replaced the traditional blue and red with the present day black and gold. The script "Pirates" and "Pittsburgh" was replaced with the block lettering that you still see today. The cap became solid black with a gold "P."

1940

1954: The word "Pittsburgh" is removed from the road jersey, and replaced with "Pirates."

1957: The Pirates became the second team to begin wearing sleeveless jerseys.

1962: Numbers were introduced on the front of the home and road jerseys and have been there ever since.

1948

1970: The Pirates became the first major league club to adopt the new double-knit fabric uniforms, which they debuted at the first game at the new Three Rivers Stadium in July. The jersey became a pullover with no button or zipper. The pants contained a built-in sash belt. The cap crown was mustard yellow with a black bill. Within two years, nearly every other club was wearing a double-knit uniform.

1957

1977

1990

2001-2008

2013

1976: The Pirates, as well as other clubs, commemorate the National League's centennial by wearing the old striped, pill-box style caps. The Bucs wore yellow caps with a black bill and black stripes.

1977-1979: Abandoned were the traditional white and gray uniforms in exchange for combinations of white, gold, black iand pinstriping. The caps became black with yellow stripes. Players' last names appear on the back of the jerseys for the first time.

1985: The Pirates returned to the basic white and gray uniform.

1987: The Pirates replaced the striped cap in favor of the traditional standard black round crown type.

1990: A script "Pittsburgh" is added to the gray road uniform for the first time since 1952.

1995: The Pirates return to button-down jerseys and belted pants.

1995: Going back to a more traditional look, the Pirates removed the names from the back of the jerseys.

1996: That change lasted only one year, as the Pirates return the names to the back of the jerseys.

1997: The organization introduces a complete new look by wearing an alternate home jersey as well as bringing the color "red" back into the uniform for the first time since 1946.

2001: With the opening of PNC Park, the club enters a "New Era of Baseball." The team re-introduces the sleeveless jersey as part of both the home and road uniform. The Pirates also become the first team ever to wear a cap with a red underbill (cap worn with the alternate home jersey only).

2005: The Pirates re-introduce pinstripes to the uniform. The alternate uniforms are worn on Sunday home games.

2007: The club introduces a red, sleeveless jersey to be worn on selected home dates.

2009: The Pirates re-introduce sleeves to their home and road jerseys and added a black alternate jersey. The sleeveless pinstriped jersey are worn on Sundays through the end of 2010.

2013: The club introduces an alternate uniform mustard gold cap which will be worn on Sunday home games throughout the season. The pullover style jersey, similar to the one from the early 1970's, will be made of "Cool Base" fabric for improved breathability and increased range of motion. The front of the jersey will feature black "Pirates" lettering outlined in mustard gold on the chest, as well as the player's number below the lettering on the left hand side of the jersey. The players' names have been added to the back of the jerseys to go along with their number, as opposed to the 1970 jerseys that did not feature the names. Black, white and mustard gold piping will be featured on the jersey's collar and sleeves, as well as on the waistband of the pants.

Baseball uniform illustrations from 1900-1994 are from Marc Okkonen's Baseball Uniforms of the 20th Century; from 1995-today are courtesy of Major League Baseball Properties

That Dick Groat was named the National League MVP in 1960 after leading the league in batting (.325) and knocking in 50 runs in 138 games for the World Champs. He also became the first right-handed Pirates hitter to win the batting title since Honus Wagner in 1911. From 1956 to 1962, Groat teamed with second baseman Bill Mazeroski to give Pittsburgh one of the game's strongest middle infields; he led the N.L. in double plays a record five times, in putouts four times and in assists twice.

SCOUTING

DIRECTOR OF AMATEUR SCOUTING

Joe DelliCarri is in his second season as the Director of Amateur Scouting. He was promoted to the position on September 16, 2011, after serving the organization as its Assistant Director of Scouting since November of 2006. He joined the Pirates scouting staff on November 7, 2005 and spent the 2006 season as the East Coast Supervisor.

Prior to joining the Pirates, DelliCarri spent 10 seasons in the New York Mets scouting department, working as a South Regional Supervisor (2001-2005) and an Area Supervisor (1996-2000).

Originally selected by the Mets in the 38th round of the 1989 June draft, Joe made his professional debut with St. Lucie that summer. He spent five seasons in the New York minor league system before being traded to Detroit on 2/17/94. An infielder during his playing days, DelliCarri retired following the players strike in 1995. He returned to the New York organization and served the Mets as their Double-A Hitting Coach at Binghamton during the '95 campaign before joining the scouting staff in 1996.

Joe was born on January 16, 1967 in Bronx, NY, and graduated from Bergen Catholic High School in Oradell, NJ. He received his bachelor's degree in Sociology of Law from the University of Pennsylvania. DelliCarri and his wife Cindy have three daughters; Allison (12), Julia (10) and Paige (8).

RENE GAYO

DIRECTOR OF LATIN AMERICAN SCOUTING

Rene Gayo is in his 10th season as a member of the Pirates Scouting department. In his role, he coordinates and supervises the club's International Scouts in attempts to sign players on the global level - with a heavy emphasis in Latin America.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Gayo spent five years (1999-2003) as the Director of International Scouting/Latin American Crosschecker with the Cleveland Indians. His tenure with the Tribe began in October of 1993 as an area scout, a position he held for eight seasons (1994-2000) mainly in South Texas and Louisiana. When his role on the international level began to expand during his tenure with the Indians, Rene was responsible for signing Rafael Perez, Willy Taveras, Edward Mujica, Danys Baez, Jose Constanza and Jhonny Peralta among others.

Gayo can also lay claim to signing current Pittsburgh prospects Starling Marte and Gregory Polanco. Marte, who made his Major League debut with the Pirates in 2012, captured the Eastern League batting title as an outfielder with Altoona in 2011 and Polanco was named the Most Outstanding Major League Prospect among South Atlantic League players last year after hitting .325 with 16 home runs and 85 RBI.

Gayo played one season of professional baseball in the Cincinnati Reds organization as a catcher before turning his attention to scouting and player development. He served the Pirates as a part time scout for four years (1989-1992) and the Texas Rangers in 1993 before joining the Indians.

Rene is of Cuban descent and was born on 9/21/62 in Miami, FL. He was raised in Chicago and currently resides in Alvin, TX, with his wife of 24 years, Leticia, and son Manny (19). Gayo attended Gordon Technical High School in Chicago, IL, where he lettered in baseball, hockey and speech & debate before going on to earn an economics degree from St. Mary's University in San Antonio, TX. Rene also played baseball for two years at St. Mary's.

DIRECTOR OF MINOR LEAGUE OPERATIONS

LARRY BROADWAY

Larry Broadway is in his second season as Pittsburgh's Director of Minor League Operations, having been named to his current post on September 16, 2011. He was the organization's Area Scouting Supervisor the previous two seasons, responsible for the four-corners area of the United States (AZ, CO, NM, UT, Las Vegas and El Paso TX).

In his current role, Larry oversees the day-to-day minor league operations, including the club's six affiliates in the United States as well as two clubs in the Dominican Republic.

A graduate of Duke University, Broadway was selected by the Montreal Expos in the third round of the 2002 First-Year Player Draft and made his professional debut with the Vermont Expos that summer, homering in his first at bat. After hitting .295 at three different levels in 2003, Larry entered the '04 campaign ranked by Baseball America as the franchise's third-best prospect.

Broadway produced one of his finest offensive seasons in 2004, batting .270 and hitting a career-high 22 home runs and knocking in 72 runs with Double-A Harrisburg. For his efforts that season, he entered the 2005 campaign ranked by Baseball America as Washington's second-best prospect and as the Nationals' top hitting prospect by USA Today Sports Weekly.

In his eight minor league seasons (2002-09), Broadway compiled a .272 batting average, going 749-for-2744 with 166 doubles, 12 triples, 104 home runs and 413 RBI in 804 games. He was a member of the South Atlantic League All-Star team in 2003 and the Pacific Coast League All-Star team in 2006. His final season came in 2009 when he played at the Triple-A level within the Pittsburgh organization, making 69 appearances with Indianapolis.

In addition to making 711 appearances at first base, 23 in left field and four in right field during his professional playing career, Broadway recorded a 3.48 ERA (10.1ip/4er) in nine games as a pitcher. He posted a 2.70 ERA (6.2ip/2er) in five games with Triple-A Columbus in 2008 and a 4.91 ERA (3.2ip/2er) in four games with Indy in 2009.

Larry was born on December 17, 1980, in Miami, FL, and grew up in West Palm Beach. He currently resides in Bradenton, FL, with his wife Amanda and son Bourne (9/17/12). In 2009, Larry received the Pirates Community Commitment Award for his community service while playing with Triple-A Indianapolis.

The Dominican Summer League Pirates 1 club posted a 44-26 regular season record and captured the league championship in the 35-team league in 2012. The DSL Pirates 1 team swept its best-of-three matchup against the DSL Mets 2 club in the first round of the playoffs, swept another best-of-three series against the DSL Mariners in the semifinals and then outlasted the DSL Angels by winning the fifth and deciding game of the championship series to win it all under first-year manager Larry Sutton.

Maximo Rivera emerged as one of the top hitters in the league. Rivera hit a combined .367 for Pittsburgh's two entries in the league and ranked third among all DSL hitters. Rivera also used his speed on the base paths to finish second in the league with a combined 34 steals for the DSL Pirates 1 and 2 clubs.

Ulises Montilla led the DSL Pirates 1 team with 43 RBI while also hitting .317 for the team during the regular season.

Oderman Rocha paced the team in wins, posting a 6-1 record and 1.81 ERA in his 17 appearances (four starts) for the team. In his final five appearances (four starts) to end the regular season, Rocha went 4-0 while allowing just three earned runs in 23.1 innings of work. Omar Basulto also put up strong numbers coming out of the bullpen, going 5-1 with a 1.74 ERA in 17 relief appearances.

Jovany Lopez, who was one of nine pitchers to earn at least one save for the DSL Pirates 1 team, led the squad with four saves while posting a 2.73 ERA in his 16 relief appearances.

PNC PARK STATUE INFORMATION

HONUS WAGNER

DEDICATED 1955

The Honus Wagner statue has had three different "homes" since being dedicated on April 30, 1955. Originally, the Wagner statue was located in Schenley Park, close to the Pirates early home, Forbes Field. It was then moved to Three Rivers Stadium and erected outside Gate C on July 21, 1972.

The statue is now located at the home plate entrance to PNC Park. Honus Wagner's statue was sponsored by the Pittsburgh Professional Baseball Association as a lasting tribute to his character and abilities. Contributions to the statue fund were in amounts ranging from $1,000 to $1.00 and were received from thousands of individuals, organizations and foundations. Names of all contributors were then inscribed on one continuous roll and put in a stainless steel, hermetically-sealed tube before being placed inside the statue.

"No one player has ever brought more honor to the game of baseball than has Honus Wagner," said former Pirates President Bill Benswanger, who served as master of ceremonies at the original statue dedication in 1955.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE

DEDICATED 1994

The Roberto Clemente statue was dedicated on July 8, 1994, to kick off All-Star Week in Pittsburgh. It was originally erected outside Gate A at Three Rivers Stadium and is now located outside the Center Field Gate to PNC Park, a few steps away from the Roberto Clemente Bridge.

The base of the statue is black granite and stainless steel with a diamond set in the center. Glass blocks represent first, second and third base. Beneath the glass is soil from Puerto Rico -- where Roberto first played the game -- Forbes Field and Three Rivers Stadium. The soil is marked as "hallowed ground," a place of transcendence where the past, present and future of baseball meet and to which each individual can bring his or her own memories.

Encircling the diamond and set in the stainless steel is a timeline of Clemente's life. Fifteen inscriptions run counter-clockwise around the diamond, beginning at homeplate and ending somewhere between third base and home. There is space for a 16th inscription, but it remains empty, a reflection of the incomplete circle of Roberto Clemente's life. Susan Wagner sculpted the 12-foot bronze statue of Clemente and L.D. Astorino & Associates, Ltd., served as the architect of the project.

WILLIE STARGELL

DEDICATED 2000

On September 29, 2000, the Pirates announced that a statue of Willie Stargell would be unveiled at the club's new home, PNC Park. The announcement was made during the last weekend of Pittsburgh's final games at Three Rivers Stadium.

Stargell, however, did not live to see the day he would be forever immortalized at the statue unveiling on April 7, 2001. After not being able to attend the unveiling ceremony because of an illness, the Hall-of-Famer passed away in the early morning hours of April 9, the same day PNC Park officially opened its doors to begin a new era of Pirates baseball.

The 12-foot bronze statue stands along Federal Street at the entrance to left field at PNC Park. At the base of the statue is a quote from Stargell: "Last night, coming in from the airport, we came through the tunnel and the city opened up its arms and I felt at home." Also throughout the base of the statue are "Stargell stars," which the Pirates all-time home run leader handed out to his teammates toward the conclusion of his 21-year playing career with Pittsburgh.

RALPH KINER

DEDICATED 2003

The Pirates unveiled a sculpture of Hall-of-Fame outfielder Ralph Kiner at PNC Park on April 7, 2003, as part of the club's opening day festivities. It is located behind the bleacher seats in left field, along the main level of the ballpark.

Kiner played for the Pirates for just seven seasons (1946-1952), but still ranks second on the club's all-time home run list behind Willie Stargell. He was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1975 and had his No. 4 jersey retired by the Pirates in 1987. Kiner holds many club records and is still one of only three National League players to ever hit eight home runs in one week.

The club announced it would immortalize the former slugger in March of 2003. Kiner won or shared the National League home run title in each of his seven seasons with Pittsburgh, a streak still unmatched in either league. The hands and bat were sculpted by Susan Wagner, the artist who also designed the Clemente, Stargell, and Mazeroski statues.

HISTORY OF THE NEGRO LEAGUES

DEDICATED 2006

The Pirates tribute to the Negro Leagues features life-size bronze statues of former Negro Leagues greats Cool Papa Bell, Oscar Charleston, Josh Gibson, Judy Johnson, Buck Leonard, Satchel Paige and Smokey Joe Williams. Each statue is accompanied by an interactive kiosk allowing fans to view a personal video and learn about the player's background, Hall of Fame honors and playing statistics.

The one-of-a-kind interactive exhibit was built to honor and preserve the history of the Negro Leagues (1920-1958) and the great players from the Homestead Grays and Pittsburgh Crawfords.

The exhibit, which had been located just inside the Left Field Gate Entrance at PNC Park the previous seven years, has been moved to another location for the 2013 season (most likely the Riverwalk beyond the outfield wall).

The multiple elements of the interactive experience share the inspiring story of the remarkable people who helped revolutionize the sports and business world in their own way.

BILL MAZEROSKI

DEDICATED 2010

As part of the 50th anniversary season of the 1960 World Series Championship, the Pirates announced plans on January 29, 2010, to erect a statue of Hall-of-Fame second baseman Bill Mazeroski.

The 12-foot bronze statue was officially unveiled on September 5, 2010, Mazeroski's birthday, and stands at the end of Mazeroski Way, which is located at the right field entrance to PNC Park. Susan Wagner, who sculpted the Clemente, Stargell and Kiner statues also produced this likeness of Maz.

Mazeroski remains the only player in Major League Baseball history to hit a game-winning home run in Game 7 of a World Series. His blast off New York's Ralph Terry on October 13, 1960, gave the Bucs a 10-9 victory in the deciding game played at Forbes Field in Pittsburgh.

Elected into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2001, the Pirates retired Mazeroski's uniform #9 in 1987. He was a seven-time All-Star and holds numerous Major League record for second basemen, including most seasons leading the league in assists (nine), most double plays in a single season (161 in 1966) and most career double plays (1,707).

BOLD DENOTES HIT AS A PIRATE

PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

GREG BROWN

Greg Brown is in his 20th season as a radio and television play-by-play announcer with the Pirates. Only three other broadcasters in club history have had more time behind the microphone than Brown.

Greg's association with the Pirates began in 1979, when he interned in the Promotions department while attending Point Park College. Following the World Series that year, Brown worked as the clubhouse manager during the Instructional League program in Bradenton, Florida. His 10-year stint in the Bucs front office included work in the Sales, Public Relations and Broadcasting departments. Greg also served as the team's public address announcer during the 1987 campaign. In 1988, he was a sports anchor on WFMJ-TV in Youngstown, OH.

Prior to joining Pittsburgh's broadcast team in 1994, Brown spent five seasons (1989-1993) doing play-by-play and color commentary for the Buffalo Bisons of the American Association (now International League) as well as hosting a sportstalk show on WGR Radio. He also worked as a color analyst and a pre- and post-game show host for the Buffalo Bills of the National Football League for five seasons (1989-93). Also during his time in Buffalo, Greg served as a play-by-play announcer for University of Buffalo basketball on WGR Radio and as a broadcaster for the Empire TV Sports Network.

Brown's dedication and passion for the Pirates extends to his efforts away from the broadcast booth as well. In addition to various off-season appearances in the community and his work on the annual Pirates caravan and PirateFest events, Greg spearheaded the "Gloves for Kids" program, which raised money for much-needed equipment and gloves for youth baseball and softball organizations in underserved areas around the Pittsburgh area. During the course of the season, Brown teams up with broadcast partner Steve Blass and hosts several pre-game receptions for members of the 65 Roses Club, which is part of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

Brown is a native of Washington, D.C. He currently resides in Leet Township with his wife Kim and son Ryan (14).

TIM NEVERETT

Tim Neverett joined the Pittsburgh broadcast team on December 18, 2008 and is in his fifth season as a radio and television play-by-play announcer with the club.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Neverett spent four years working for FSN Rocky Mountain, where he spent the 2008 campaign serving as both the pre-game and post-game studio host for Colorado Rockies games. During his tenure with FSN Rocky Mountain, Tim also served as a play-by-play announcer for Rockies games, college football, basketball, hockey and lacrosse, as well as arena football and track and field.

Neverett was also one of the original play-by-play and studio voices for the mtn, The Mountain West Conference Sports Network, where he called a number of football and basketball games along with hosting a weekly roundtable studio show. In addition, Tim worked as a weekend talk show host for the nationally syndicated Sporting News Radio Network, where his show was heard on over 160 stations nationwide. He also served as a Sports Talk Host for ESPN 560 in Denver, Colorado, where he was named the 2005 Best Radio Sports-Talk Host by Westword magazine in its annual "Best of Denver" issue.

Neverett also called baseball, softball, basketball and soccer during the 2004 Athens Olympics and 2008 Beijing Olympics. During the 2002 Salt Lake City Olympics and 2006 Olympic Games in Torino he handled play-by-play duties for hockey and numerous skiing events. The multi-national feeds were seen in more than 100 countries.

Prior to his time in Denver, Neverett lived in Las Vegas, where he called games on radio and TV for the Padres and Dodgers Triple-A teams. He also served as the play-by-play voice for Las Vegas' International Hockey League team for five seasons, then added college baseball and football at UNLV to his duties.

Neverett began his baseball broadcasting career in 1985 with Pittsburgh's Double-A affiliate in the Eastern League. At the age of 19, he had the opportunity to fill in calling radio play-by-play of Nashua Pirates games, which led to more innings and ultimately a schedule of games that season.

Tim has three sons; Matthew (18), Kyle (16) and Drew (13). He is a graduate of Emerson College in Boston where he lettered in baseball for four seasons.

STEVE BLASS

The 2013 season marks Steve Blass' 54th year of involvement with the Pirates and his 28th behind the microphone as a color commentator. He has been associated with the club since signing his first professional contract on June 27, 1960.

For the ninth straight season, Steve will work only those games played at PNC Park. He will continue in his role as an analyst on both radio and TV. Only Lanny Frattare (33 years) and Bob Prince (28) have spent more years behind the microphone than Blass (27).

A right-handed pitcher, Blass made his professional debut with Kingsport in 1960 and his Major League debut with the Bucs on May 10, 1964. He joined the big league team permanently in 1966 and went on to pitch a total of 10 seasons in the Majors, compiling a 103-76 record, 57 complete games and 16 shutouts in 282 games (231 starts). Steve ranks seventh on the club's all-time list in strikeouts (896).

In his third full season in the Majors in 1968, Steve went 18-6, leading the league with a .750 winning percentage while posting a 2.12 ERA, 12 complete games and a career-high seven shutouts. His 2.12 ERA ranked fifth in the N.L. as St. Louis' Bob Gibson led the circuit with a 1.12 ERA.

During a five-year span from 1968 thru 1972, Blass was one of the best pitchers in the National League as he compiled a 78-44 record, 50 complete games and a 3.05 ERA. He won a career-high 19 games in 1972 and was named to the National League All-Star team that season.

In the 1971 World Series against the Baltimore Orioles, Blass recorded two complete game victories, allowing only seven hits and two runs in 18 innings of work. He finished second in the voting for World Series MVP behind teammate Roberto Clemente and remains the last National League pitcher to throw a complete game in Game Seven of a World Series.

After retiring following the 1974 season, Blass remained in the Pittsburgh area and worked in private business, while continuing to do community service for the ballclub.

In 1983, he worked with the legendary Hall of Fame broadcaster Bob Prince on Pirate cable telecasts and was also retained the following year when the cable rights were secured by Home Sports Entertainment. Blass officially joined the Pittsburgh Pirates radio broadcast crew in 1986.

A native of Canaan, CT, Steve and his wife Karen live in Upper St. Clair. They have two sons, David and Christopher, and five grandchildren. In 2002, Steve became the 13th recipient of the "Pride of the Pirates" award, a yearly honor (since 1990) which recognizes a member of the Pirates family who has demonstrated the qualities of sportsmanship, dedication and outstanding character during a lifetime of service.

On September 10, 2009, Steve defied the astronomical odds and recorded a pair of holes-in-one in the same round of golf. According to Golf Digest, the odds of a golfer making two aces in the same round are one in 67 million.

Bob Walk is in his 20th season as a member of the Pirates broadcast crew. He joins Greg Brown as being one of only six men with at least 15 years of service behind the microphone for the Bucs on radio.

The former right-handed pitcher spent 10 of his 14 years pitching in the Major Leagues with Pittsburgh (1984-1993). He compiled a 105-81 lifetime record, which included an 82-61 mark with the Pirates.

Walk's professional career began with Spartanburg in 1977 after he was drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in the 3rd round of the 1976 June draft. He made his big league debut with the Phillies in 1980 and was the starting pitcher in Game One of the World Series that October against Kansas City.

In the spring of 1981, Walk was dealt to the Atlanta Braves for outfielder Gary Matthews. He spent three seasons in the Atlanta organization before being acquired by Pittsburgh in 1984.

Bob was a 1988 National League All-Star and he posted six straight winning seasons from 1987 to 1992. One of his finest moments in a Pirates uniform came in 1992 when he pitched a 7-1, complete-game victory over the Atlanta Braves in Game Five of the National League Championship Series.

Walk, a native of Newhall, CA, resides in Wexford with his wife Lorrie. They have three sons; Tommy (33), Johnny (30) and Ronny (23). Tommy and his wife, Dominique, are the proud parents of daughters Makayla (10) and Kylie (7). Johnny is scheduled to marry Nikki on May 11, 2013.

Entering the 2013 campaign, John has spent a total of 22 seasons in the Pittsburgh organization (1988-1996, 1999-2001 and 2003-2012). Prior to being named to the broadcast team, John spent time as a coach with the Double-A Altoona Curve (2002-2004) after serving the Pirates as a special instructor during spring training in 2002.

He saw his last action in the Major Leagues with the Pirates in 2001. John Wehner hitting the final home run at Three Rivers Stadium

HOW TO FIGURE

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of hits by the number of at bats.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine and then divide that number by the number of innings pitched.

FIELDING AVERAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

MAGIC NUMBERS: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks, hit by pitches and divide by the total of at bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

SLUGGING AVERAGE: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at bat (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit-by-pitch, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP: Highest batting average based on a minimum of 502 plate appearances, the equivalent of 3.1 appearances for each of the 162 scheduled games, which may include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitch, etc.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR PITCHING (ERA) CHAMPIONSHIP: Lowest earned run average with a minimum of 162 innings pitched.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP: The fielders with the highest fielding average at each position, provided:

(1) A catcher participates as a catcher in at least one-half the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.

(2) An infielder or outfielder must have participated at his position in at least two-thirds of the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.

(3) A pitcher must have pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season. EXCEPTION: if another pitcher has a fielding average as high or higher, and has handled more total chances in a lesser number of innings, he shall be the fielding champion.

NOTE: These figures DO NOT determine Rawlings Gold Glove winners at the end of the season.

Those are selected by a vote of managers and coaches.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A ROOKIE: A player with no more than 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues during the previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the 25-man player limit (excluding time in military service).

PINCH HITTING: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around in the inning and a pinch hitter comes up a second time, he will not be considered a pinch hitter the second time.

CONSECUTIVE HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive hitting streak shall not be terminated if the plate appearance results in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. A sacrifice fly shall terminate the streak.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit. The player's individual consecutive-game hitting streak shall be determined by the consecutive games in which the player appears and is not determined by his club's games.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one-half inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

DETERMINING GAMES AHEAD/BEHIND: Subtract the team's wins from the first place club's wins and subtract the first place club's losses from the team's losses. Add the results and divide by two.
